

TWENTY-EIGHTH CONGRESS, FIRST SESSION.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1844.

SENATE.

The Senate did not sit to-day.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

As soon as the journal was read, Mr. BELSER, of Ala., rose, with a copy of the Boston Atlas in his hand, and having obtained leave from the House, proceeded to read a letter in that paper written from here, and giving an account of the attack made by Mr. Weller upon Mr. Shriver, in which he (Mr. Belser) was represented as having, in company with other Locofoco members, been present aiding Mr. Weller in his assault upon a man physically weaker than himself. The article in question was extremely severe upon Mr. Belser and Mr. Payne. Mr. B., however, declared that he was entirely ignorant of the affair until it occurred—that he was not within sixteen feet of the parties, and had nothing to do with the affair in any shape or manner. He never had borne the character of a bully anywhere, and was not at all desirous of such a reputation. He pronounced the article in the Atlas slanderous and malicious. It was signed T. M. B., and he understood the writer had left the city. If he had not, Mr. B. would have made an example of him which he would have long remembered.

Mr. PAYNE said that he should be governed by his own views of what was his duty, regardless of yelpings and howlings within the bar of this House or beyond it. He was not in the habit of noticing these calumnies, but if one of their authors was in his path, he would kick him out of the way as he would any other puppy. He knew nothing of the assault of Mr. Weller upon Mr. Shriver until it took place. After he heard the insulting language which was used towards his friend he expected to see it resented, and he did say that nobody should interfere. If this gave him the character of a bully, he was willing to bear it, for he would act in the same way again. After all, Mr. Shriver's friends had reason to thank him, for if he had not taken Mr. Weller off, he did not know what might have befallen Mr. Shriver.

Mr. HAMMETT, of Miss., made a statement confirmatory of what Mr. Belser had said, but spoke with his back towards us, so that we could not hear him.

ASHBURTON TREATY.

Mr. LEVY, of Fla., moved a suspension of the rules, that he might submit a resolution that the President be informed that in the opinion of this House the 10th article of the treaty of Washington ought to be revoked.

The suspension was refused.

Mr. ADAMS called for the orders of the day, and

Mr. HAMMETT, of Miss., was entitled to the floor; but this gentleman was not disposed to proceed, and some one moved a postponement of the subject until Monday.

Mr. CLINGMAN, of N. C., would vote for the postponement, if the subject could be made the special order of that day, to be then finally disposed of. This suggestion was not acceded to. The subject of the rules and orders was then postponed until Tuesday next by a vote of 132 to 40.

One or two private bills were passed.

The SPEAKER laid before the House several Executive communications, after which the House resolved itself into Committee of the Whole, Mr. Gilmer, of Virginia, in the Chair, and took up the Private Calendar.

A bill for the relief of the nearest relatives of those who were lost in the U. S. schr. Grampus was taken up, and gave rise to quite an extended debate, in which Messrs. Belser, Atkinson, Morris, Hale, Hopkins, and Barnard, took part. The bill was finally laid aside, to be favorably reported to the House.

A large number of private bills were similarly disposed of, after which

The House adjourned.

LOCAL NEWS.

THE CONCERT OF THE HUTCHINSON FAMILY on Saturday evening last was all that could have been wished, as regards both the audience and the entertainment, and we can assure the "Hutchinson Family" that the former was an honor rarely bestowed in this city. But how shall we better describe the performance of the beautiful pieces selected than by adopting the following extract from the Baltimore Patriot? "What could be finer than Longfellow's beautiful 'Excelsior' sung by them—what more lofty—what better calculated to lift the soul from lesser thoughts, and make it long after the aspirations of genius: who could follow the tenor voice, through the 'Maniac,' and not feel that he was not mad—'No by Heavens! not mad'—who did not see that the immortal spirit of Bonaparte had burst the cerements of the tomb, and would wake amid generations yet unborn;—who that did not glory in the offspring of 'the old Granite State,' as they sweetly sang their own simple tale."

They perform again this evening, and we advise those particularly who have been so lately enraptured by the "Italian," to go and hear the "Native" melody.

FIRE.—The stables in the rear of Count Deminon's buildings, between 13th and 14th streets, were destroyed by fire on Saturday afternoon about 3 o'clock. The different fire companies, with their apparatus, were promptly on the ground, but from the combustible material of the building, could render but little assistance. It was, we have no doubt, the work of an incendiary.

SUDDEN DEATH.—On yesterday morning, our old and respected fellow-citizen, Mr. OWEN McCUE, upon his return from early mass at St. Patrick's, where he had participated in the communion service, was seized with a palpitation of the heart, and in a few moments expired. We sympathize deeply with his afflicted family in this sudden loss of their protector, who had in the stations of husband, father, friend, and citizen, possessed a reputation pure and without a blemish. He was "an honest man."

DIED.

Suddenly on yesterday morning, from an affection of the heart, to which he had occasionally been subject, in the 68th year of his age, Mr. OWEN McCUE, a native of county Galway, Ireland, but for many years an esteemed and respected citizen of Washington.

His funeral will take place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, from his late residence on 9th, between F and G streets, to which his friends and acquaintances are respectfully invited.

DR. TAYLOR'S BALSAM OF LIVERWORT, prepared at 375 Bowery, New York, is justly celebrated as the most wonderful curative of pulmonary diseases in the whole range of pharmacy, some of our most respectable physicians use it in their practice, prescribing it as the best of all remedies for pulmonary complaints and physical debility, and they unhesitatingly recommend it to be kept in every family of a consumptive tendency. It is universally received as one of the standard medicines of the day. The great merit of Dr. Taylor's Balsam is, that in all cases of pulmonary complaints it gives immediate relief. A single bottle will, in most cases, reveal its astonishing virtues, and open at once the fountain of health and strength to the afflicted. Read the following certificate:

"Being constitutionally predisposed to Consumption, (a number of my family having died with this disease) and having suffered from irritation of the Lungs, accompanied with cough and raising matter and blood, together with severe pain in my side and breast, till I was supposed to be beyond recovery, I was induced by advice of Dr. Perkins, as a last resort, to try 'Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort.' I have taken five bottles in all. I began to improve with the first bottle, and while taking the third, was so far recovered as to be able to get about. Since which time, by continued use of it, I am quite restored, and able to attend to my usual business. To persons suffering from coughs and affections of the Lungs, I do earnestly recommend it."
(Signed) "JAS. C. SCOTT."

ELIZABETH CITY, N. C., Dec. 16, 1842.
Observe—The only genuine Taylor's Balsam of Liverwort has an engraved label around each bottle, with the signature of Dr. Gordon J. Leeds, attached, to prevent counterfeits. In order to be certain of obtaining the genuine article, purchase only at the original office, 375 Bowery.

NOTICE.—The Campbells are coming! Hard to beat! Fair play and no gouging!—No monopoly!—BEEF! BEEF! BEEF!—To my old friends and fellow citizens, and the public generally—I return thanks to you all for the kind patronage you have extended to me since I have catered for you in the Centre Market, and now make known to you that I (in addition to my stalls in old Centre Market, next to Mr. James Rhodes's, and opposite Frederick Hager's) have a store on the corner of 6th street and Pennsylvania avenue, where, at all times, I have on hand the best assortment of Beef, both fresh and salt, that can be procured in this city. I now have for slaughter 80 head of fat cattle, raised and fed by Hamilton Rodgers, Esq., and 60 head of spayed heifers, raised and fed by Tibbalt, (both of which gentlemen are the best feeders of cattle in Virginia.) and drove with the greatest care by Robert L. Arnstead and Bascable, and purchased for me by a gentleman of this city who is admitted to be the best judge of good Beef in the United States; and will have, commencing on Saturday morning, and continuing each market morning thereafter, a portion of said extraordinary fine Beef, at 6 1/2 cents per pound, first cuts.

All boarding houses and families who are fond of good living will give me a call, for I am convinced if you once call you will assuredly purchase.
